Once upon a time a long long time ago, a Southland lad named Corey Flynn (hence the bar name O'Flynn's) moved to Canterbury to succeed in NZ's National game.

After playing 130 games for the Crusaders he has won 4 Super Rugby titles, has become our most capped Crusader after surpassing Rueben Thorne & in 2011 won the Rugby World Cup. So the question is? Was he part of a champion team or was he the champion in the team?

Mr Flynn is still playing professional rugby today & will do so while his mind is still willing!
